A RED HOT ANARCHIST, A dispatch from Ohicago says :

"Visious of a terrific explaint, bleeding and mangled bodies, and general chaos floated before the mind's eye of Justice C. J. White on Saturday, as Mrs. Hannah Berger told a story of Mr. Berger's alleged plot to blow both himself and his wife into eternity. Mrs. Berger's story was as follows: My husband is an anarchist, and is always talking about social evolution and dynamite ex-plosions. A day or two ago he came to ma Stall No. 1 at Fairfax street entrance and No. 3 at Boyal street entrance City Market, and Fish House No. 1 Corporation Fish Wharf. [mh4 2m]

| Proceedings of the wanted me to make the journey for, but I went. My husband had a can of something, which he carried, we got off at the end of the car line, and Mr. Barper took me out on the prairie. He Mr. Berger took me out on the prairie. He put the can on the ground and said: 'This is nothing but a world of trouble. That can is filled with dynamite enough to blow you and me to pieces and tear up the ground for yards around. I have got a revolver here, You stand on one side of the can and I will stand on the other, and I will fire into the stand on the other, and I will he into the dynamite and we'll commit suicide.' Oh, but he scared me, judge. I just grabbed him and pulled him away, and we went away. He has not been so bad since." Berger is said to be thoroughly indectrinated with anarchist teachings. It is said of him that on the 4th of July he set a row of thirtweight tin cases in the middle of the street. ty-eight tin cans in the middle of the street and blew them away with several small cannon. The cans represented the United States and the government, which Berger considered ought to be dealt with in that way.

> CONVERTED TO MORMONISM .- A dispatch from Oxford, Ala., says: "Rev. Hiram Harrison and his family consisting of a son and seven daughters, left here Monday for Ogden, Utah. The entire family are Mormon converts and the conversion of Elder Harrison to that faith shows the wonderful influence the Mormon elders obtain over the country people of this section. Harri-son was one of the leading hard shell Baptist preachers in this section when the Mor-mon elders first appeared here several years ago. For a while he denounced them from the pulpit and in private, but finally he accepted their teachings and himself and family became enthusiastic Mormons and advocates of polygamy. Harrison has been preaching Mormonism for two years now, and has been made an elder. When he reaches Utah he will be given five wives as a reward for his faithful service to the church in Alabama."
